POSTAL NONBANK FINANCIAL SERVICES

(Ms. KAPTUR asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Ms. KAPTUR. Madam Speaker, as a senior member of the House Appropriations Committee, I am very honored to be co-leading efforts to provide $6 million for postal nonbank financial services in a pilot program through the U.S. Postal Service.

I am thankful to my House colleagues, Congressman BILL PASCARELL and Congresswoman ALEXANDRIA OCASIO-CORTEZ, and our friends in the Senate for joining our effort.

The COVID-19 pandemic has demonstrated that many Americans are left behind by Wall Street bankers.

As unemployment soared in 2020, the U.S. Congress swiftly provided relief through economic stimulus payments, unemployment insurance, and so much more to America's workers, yet over 63 million Americans, including many who are impoverished, lacked the most basic banking services to access these funds and to conduct the simplest financial transactions. Like, for example, paying a utility bill.

Yes, according to the FDIC, some 63 million adults are considered underbanked in urban, suburban, and rural communities across our Nation.

In the last Congress, Congressman PASCARELL and I successfully led a Financial Services amendment to the FY21 Appropriations bill to include $2 million for postal financial services, and we look forward to reintroducing our bill and to getting it passed in both Chambers this year.

RECOGNIZING CAPTAIN PATRICK C. POLIS AS TENNESSEE'S SECOND DISTRICT VETERAN OF THE MONTH

(Mr. BURCHETT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. BURCHETT. Madam Speaker, I rise to recognize Captain Patrick C. Polis as Tennessee's Second District Veteran of the Month.

Captain Polis was drafted into the United States Army in 1966 as a private, then attended Officer Candidate School and earned the rank of second lieutenant. He served two combat tours of duty, Madam Speaker, during the Vietnam war, rising to the rank of captain during the war. He was later awarded the Bronze Star Medal and Army Commendation Medal for his service.

He left the Army in 1974 and, regrettably, he attended the University of Alabama, being we are from Tennessee, but he did graduate magna cum laude in 1981.

Following a career in business management, he returned to school at the Asbury Theological Seminary and earned a master's degree in divinity in 1993. He used his religious education to serve as a pastor at the United Methodist Church in Knoxville from 1993 to 2019. He also served as chaplain for the Knoxville Police Department.

In 2019, he was inducted into the Army Officer Candidate School Hall of Fame at Fort Benning, Georgia.

Captain Polis and his wife, Sandra, still reside in Knoxville. He remains active in the veteran community through the Vietnam Veterans of America, serving as president of the Captain Bill Robinson Chapter 1078.

I thank Captain Polis so much for his service to our country. It is my honor to recognize him today on the floor of the House of Representatives.

Madam Speaker, he is just an outstanding individual.

CARDINAL O'HARA LADY LIONS CAPTURE SCHOOL'S FIRST-EVER STATE BASKETBALL TITLE

(Ms. SCANLON asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Ms. SCANLON. Madam Speaker, I rise today to celebrate the Cardinal O'Hara Lady Lions basketball team, which recently won the PIAA class 5A
